	Examiner Edward J. Webman	Art Unit 1616

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Claims 1-3, 5-11, 29-49 are pending.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-3, 5-11, 29-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Zofchak et al (US 6,800,716).

Zofchak et al teach the claimed polymer (figure 3). Personal care products such as creams, conditioners, eye makeup, lipstick and shampoos are disclosed (column 4 lines 42-50). Permanent wave formulations are specified (column 10 lines 30-21). Soaps are disclosed (column 10 line 59). 0.25-25% polymer is specified (column 10 lines 41-43). Other components such as thickeners are disclosed (column 10 lines 24-29). Increased sheen, adhesion to the hair shaft, and velvety softness are disclosed (column 9 lines 55-56, column 10 lines 3-4).

Claims 1-3, 5-11, 31-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In the copy of claims filed 12/30/04, claim 1 is missing definitions of R6, R10 and n in previous copies, rendering claims 1-3, 5-11, 31-48 vague. In claim 49, n is defined but R6 and R10 remain undefined, rendering the claim vague.

Claim 38 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 38 the phrase "enhancing the appearance" is vague; it's scope is unclear because the phrase is subjective. Thus, the metes and bounds of the claim are rendered unclear. Applicant argues but does not claim the limitations of shine and feel. Applicant's opinion as to whether or not the claim is indefinite is not supported by any explanation.

Claims 41, 42 and 45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 41, 42, and 45 "improved" is vague; against what standard? Applicant argues but does not claim a comparison to untreated hair.

No claims allowed.
